

University of California, Merced
School of Social Sciences, Humanities and Arts

Chicano/a Literature Series

PRESENTS:

BARBARA BRINSON-CURIEL

reading from her works
and discussing poetry

Tuesday, March 29, 2011
10:30-11:45 a.m.

COB 113
UC Merced

FREE AND OPEN TO THE PUBLIC

Barbara Brinson Curiel, Chicana poet and scholar of Chicana/o literature, is the author of the poetry collection Speak to Me From Dreams (Third Woman Press). Her work has been widely anthologized in collections of Chicano and Latino poetry. She is a Professor of English and Critical Race, Gender and Sexuality Studies at Humboldt State University.

*****

For information on forthcoming events, please contact the Series organizer, Dr. Manuel M. Martín-Rodríguez, mmartin-rodriguez@ucmerced.edu

Co-Sponsored by the Center for Research in the Humanities and Arts

22nd event in the series!