

University of California, Merced
School of Social Sciences, Humanities and Arts

Chicano/a Literature Series

In conjunction with LIT 120 & WCH 220:

GARY SOTO

reads and discusses his works

Monday, November 7
1:00- 2:00 pm

Kolligian Library
Room 208
UC Merced

FREE AND OPEN TO THE PUBLIC. For further information or groups of 5 and more, contact Sandra Mora at the School of Social Sciences, Humanities & Arts*

Acclaimed author and Fresno native Gary Soto is a prolific writer of books for children and adults and has garnered awards ranging from the Academy of American Poets Prize to the Tomás Rivera Prize for children's literature to the Author-Illustrator Civil Rights Award from the National Education Association. His books include The Elements of San Joaquin, The Tale of Sunlight, Where Sparrows Work Hard, Living Up the Street, Who Will Know Us?, California Childhood, Home Course in Religion, Jesse, New and Selected Poems, Chato's Kitchen, The Skirt, Chato and the Party Animals, among many others.

*****

For information on forthcoming events, please contact the Series organizer, Dr. Manuel M. Martín-Rodríguez, mmartin-rodriguez@ucmerced.edu