

University of California, Merced
School of Social Sciences, Humanities and Arts

Chicano/a Literature Series

Seymour Menton

PRESENTS:

SEYMOUR MENTON

Wednesday, March 14
1:00- 2:20 pm

COB 265
UC Merced

FREE AND OPEN TO THE PUBLIC. For further information or groups of 5 and more, contact Julia Valdez at the School of Social Sciences, Humanities & Arts*

Prof. Menton, emeritus UC Irvine, served as founding Chair of UCI's Department of Foreign Languages and Literatures. He is an expert on Latin American literature. Some of his numerous books include Saga de México (1955), El cuento hispanoamericano (1964), Latin America's New Historical Novel (1993), Historia verdadera del realismo mágico (1998), and Un tercer gringo viejo: Relatos y confesiones (2005), among others. Dr. Menton will speak on The Post-Revolutionary Spanish American Novel: 1989-2007. In conjunction with this talk, Kolligian library is hosting an exhibit of some of the books donated to UC Merced by Dr. Menton.

For information on forthcoming events, please contact the Series organizer, Dr. Manuel M. Martín-Rodríguez, mmartin-rodriguez@ucmerced.edu