Job Category: Research Support
Unit: Sierra Nevada Research Institute
Position Code: TBD
Status: Open
Hours per week: 40 hours per week
Closing Date: 6/1/2007
Salary: DoE
Location: UC Merced field sites in Sierra Nevada

Description: The Mountain Hydrology Group is looking for one or more motivated and capable undergraduate students with to assist group members in research in mountain hydrology and biogeochemistry.

There are 4 research projects available for field research in summer 2007. All will involve assisting with instrument installation for hydrologic measurements, making measurements in streams and analyzing data. Students must have ability to spend much of summer in the mountains. Summer will involve spending time at more than one location. Lodging included. Locations:

- Fish Camp, Sierra National Forest, south of Yosemite National Park
- Wolverton area, in Sequoia National Park
- Kings River Experimental Watersheds, Sierra National Forest, south of Shaver Lake
- Last Chance Watershed, Tahoe National Forest, near Foresthill

For more information see: https://eng.ucmerced.edu/people/rbales/mhrg

Qualifications: At a minimum, individual should be comfortable with backcountry travel, at times with 25+ lbs of weight and willing to work in all types of conditions. Familiarity with making basic scientific measurements is desirable.

RESUME AND COVER LETTER NOT REQUIRED
For More information Contact Robert Rice at rrice@ucmerced.edu

To Apply: Please apply on-line by clicking the "Apply On-Line" link. If you are unable to apply on-line, please mail your resume and cover letter to: University of California, Merced, Career Services Center, P. O. Box 2039, Merced CA 95344-0039. Please list job number on subject line.

The University of California at Merced is an affirmative action/equal opportunity employer with a strong institutional commitment to the achievement of diversity among its faculty, staff and students.